70th Republic Day Celebration

26.01.2019

Event Report

The democratic nation of India unites to mark its 70th Republic day, a day of pride for all countrymen. Republic day marks the day India formally adopted the constitution as the guiding document and became an independent republic. Almost two and a half years later after getting independence, the constitution of India came into effect on 26th January 1950, making India one of the most popular democracies of the world. On this day India ceased to be a constitutional monarchy and became the Republic of India. To honour this historic day, we celebrate 26th January as Republic day every year.

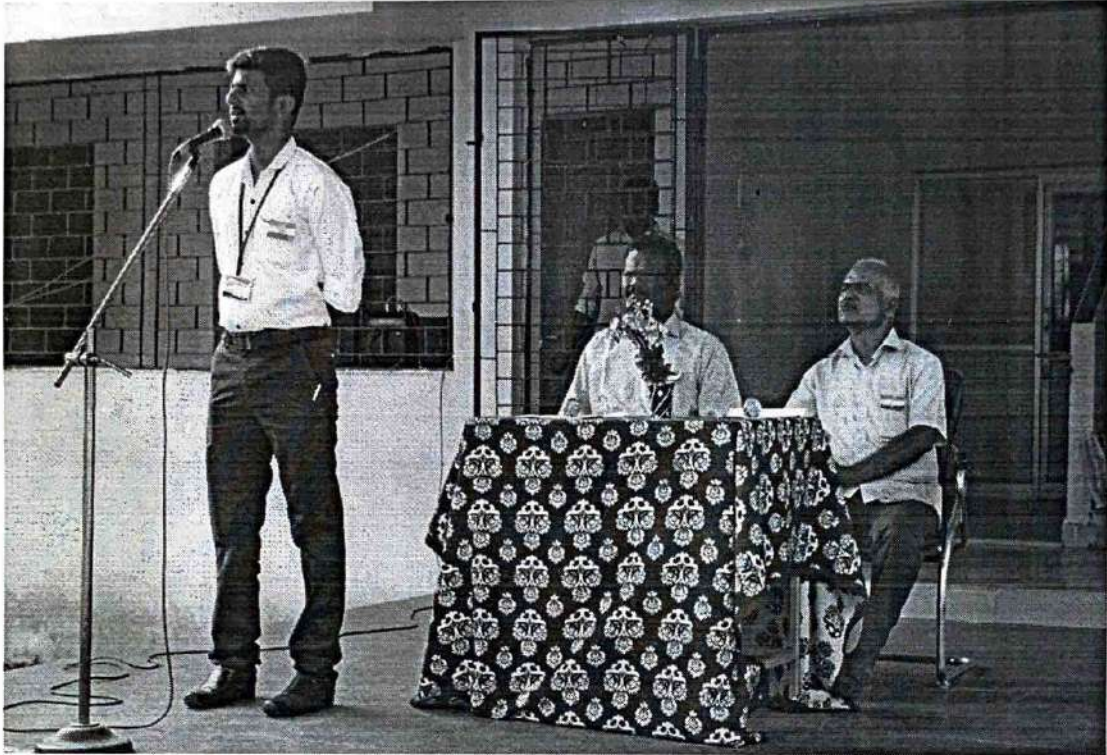

On 26.01.2019, the 70th Republic day was celebrated enthusiastically by the staff and students of V.O.C. College of Education. The programme started with a prayer song, followed by TamilthaiVazhthu. Dr. T. Kanakaraj, Principal, V.O.C. College of Education, welcomed the gathering. The chief guest of the event Dr. J. Ragu Antony, department of English, V.O.C. College, hoisted the National flag. This was followed by various activities and speech by the student teachers. Scripture reading i.e. verses from Bible, Quran, Bhagavad-Gita and thought for the day, Thirrukural, News and speech was done by the student teachers and it showed their devotion for Nation. This was followed by chief guest address. Vote of thanks was proposed by Dr. C. Thanavathi. Master of ceremony was Mr. S. Ramkumar. The programme ended with National Anthem. Students and faculties were distributed with sweets at the end.
